Before I ask you any questions, you must be notified that you have the following Constitutional Rights.

You have the right to remain silent, and anything you say, can, and will be used against you in a Court of law.

You have the right to talk with a lawyer, and have that lawyer with you while being questioned. If you are unable to pay a lawyer, one can be appointed to represent you, at no cost, before questioning, if you wish.

If you wish to answer questions now, without a lawyer, you still have the right to stop answering questions at any time.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

I have read each of the above rights, and/or they have been read to me, and I understand them.

Having each of these rights in mind, I wish to waive or give up these rights and make a statement and/or answer any questions, without the need for a lawyer.

I do this voluntarily and of my own free will. No one has applied any violence toward me, nor made any threats or promises, nor done anything in order to get me to make a statement or answer questions.
